Program Levels

N.C.C.A. training includes several options ranging from licensing to advanced level programs. If you want to continue your education, you can receive your next degree level (Bachelors, Masters, or Doctorate) in Christian Counseling from one of several Christian universities approved by the N.C.C.A. (Note that the N.C.C.A.'s licensing and degree programs are approved for education assistance through companies, churches, and state rehabilitation departments providing such assistance.)

Which Program is Right for You?

If you have a High School Diploma or GED you can pursue your Bachelors Degree in counseling.

If you have a Bachelors Degree in another discipline you may get your Master's Degree in counseling

If you have a Master's Degree in another discipline you can get your Doctoral Degree in counseling.

If you have your Doctoral Degree in another discipline you can get your 2nd Doctorate Degree in counseling.

If you do not have a degree or do not desire a degree in counseling but want to be licensed to counsel, the NCCA License only option is available.
